Dear Miss Pitt-

As "President of the Eaton Employees War Auxiliary" I was delegated to write to you - and - I accepted with pleasure.

On behalf of the Executive, I wish to convey to you their appreciation of the "piece of work" which you did for us as Convenor of the Knitting Group. Your continued efforts in keeping the various workers supplied and happy was most invaluable. The success of the knitted enclosures in the Christmas parcels annually showed the final results of your year's work.

We also appreciate the meticulous detailed reports of purchases and work which you left for our files, as well as the interesting scrap book.

I am sure that as you look back over the sixteen years of service you must feel that certain things were accomplished by your efforts which have gone into the well-being of those with whom and for whom you worked.

We certainly wish you every success in your new sphere of activity and will be glad to hear how you are enjoying your work.

Yours Sincerely,

Mary E. Crawford

Dear Miss Pitt:

We are enclosing a booklet giving a resume of the Eaton Employees' War Auxiliary's accomplishment during the war years.

You had much to do with the groups that packed boxes at the Girls' Club, and your loyal devotion to the work of the Auxiliary and your assistance was an inspiration for which we are all most grateful.

Our thanks go to you, and our best wishes that your present position may be what your heart desires.

Most sincerely,

Flora McCrea Eaton
Honorary President,
Eaton Employees' War
Auxiliary
